Relive the romance of palanquins and elephant caravans. Of epic journeys and landmark stopovers. Of flamboyance and luxuries. Of travelling like royalty.

The Golden Chariot is an experience that brings it all back. For eight days, you're taken back to the era of kings, queens, dynasties and royal elegances. South India's first and only luxury train, The Golden Chariot is the luxury connoisseur's version of South India. Your very own private suite takes you to one magical stop after another; places that held court with opulence and majesty, and still tells a magnificent tale. A personal attendant to take care of your every whim, cultural artistes from across the State to hold you in raptures, everything at your beck and call - a moment, straight out of His Majesty's revelrous starry nights - recreated just for you. Just for your moment in time.

South India - a veritable jewel box of an experience. Ornate temples compete with one another in detail and craft. Exquisite palaces keep their aristocratic chins uplifted in proud complacency. Timeless empires. Shores where history dropped anchor. Emerald forests. Sentinel fortresses. Their vivid hues and vibrant textures, woven together in a golden tapestry of supreme luxury. Welcome aboard The Golden Chariot.

Karnataka. Tamil Nadu. Pondicherry. Kerala. Goa. "Many Worlds. One Voyage." The Golden Chariot, South India's first and only luxury train experience brings to you, a timeless journey that's worthy of royalty. That's worthy of you. A journey to a rarer facet of India. A journey like no other; one that's the privilege of a chosen few. An itinerary that's designed to delight; to fascinate; to cast a spell. Traversing kingdom after kingdom, your journey becomes an epic of absolute luxury.
